GLAMPING DONE RIGHT

The Space Air MK II delivers an elevated camping experience with cutting-edge convenience. As Australia's first automatic opening, stabilising, and inflating camper, it sets up in under three minutes, letting you spend more time relaxing and less time unpacking. Designed for comfort and connection, the Space Air MK II features double beds on both ends, so you can bring more people along for the journey and enjoy every moment together.

"Highly recommend Mars caravans! The quality, service, and attention to detail are outstanding. From start to finish, the whole experience was smooth and professional. If you're looking for a reliable caravan and a great team to back it up, Mars is the way to go!"
